House of Finance / Goethe University Frankfurt

The House of Finance, the Leibniz Institute for Financial Research SAFE and the Institute for Banking and Financial History (IBF) are jointly organizing a Workshop for Early Career Researchers on "Systems under Pressure. New Perspectives from Financial History" which will be held in Frankfurt am Main on 28 April 2027.

The workshop aims to bring together early career scholars working on financial history topics relevant to today's financial and related fiscal challenges such as, for example, high public debt, market disintegration and fragmentation, problems of innovation and growth finance. The workshop is chaired by Prof. Kris Mitchener, holder of the Goethe University Visiting Professorship of Financial History in 2027, who will provide feedback on the selected papers. The participants of the workshop will also be invited to attend the Conference organized by Prof. Kris Mitchener taking place on the following day (29 April 2027) at Goethe University.

Complete manuscripts or manuscripts drafts should be submitted here no later than 16 December 2026. We will acknowledge receipt of submission and the authors of accepted papers will be notified by 11 January 2027.

For program participants, conference fee and accommodation will be covered. In addition, travel expenses will be covered up to 300 EUR (Europe) and 600 EUR (overseas). If you have any questions, please contact Hanna Floto-Degener, House of Finance, Goethe-University (floto-degener@hof.uni-frankfurt.de).
